My Very First Bike

*My very first bike was shiny and red,
My dreams had come true as I jumped out of bed.
No time for breakfast, no time to groom,
I jumped into my clothes, and raced from the room.
With legs peddling fast and the wind in my face,
I had time on my side, I'm bound to win the race!
Clutching the handles and pumping my knees,
I flew past the crowds, as I peddled with ease.
Splashing through puddles along the bumpy old track,
Across the finishing line with no looking back!!*
